

Early Intervention Young Parent Family Case Worker

This part-time early intervention young parent family worker (EIYFPW) role is varied and has a wide scope of responsibilities and opportunities to develop and grow the program. The main duties of the position are to provide effective early intervention casework services to children and young parent families living across the Central Coast region. This position may also facilitate group work as identified. Flexible working hours/days negotiated to right applicant. The EIFW position provides services to a very young parents including families with children who have a disability.

ESSENTIAL SELECTION CRITERIA

1. Post-secondary qualification in a relevant discipline such as social science, human services, social work or community welfare with demonstrated experience working with vulnerable families.
2. Sound knowledge of child and adolescent development and exceptional knowledge of effective parenting and behaviour management techniques.
3. Highly effective verbal and written communication skills with a sound knowledge of Microsoft Office applications.
4. Demonstrated ability to manage a number of key relationships and to work in collaboration with stakeholders both internally and externally.
5. Demonstrated experience working in a child-centred, family focused and strengths based framework.
6. High level of interpersonal skills with a demonstrated ability to communicate and engage children, young people and their families who may come from diverse backgrounds with an array of complex social and family issues.
7. An ability to work independently and prioritise own work tasks.
8. Demonstrates responsibility for work outputs and supports other team members to achieved desired organisational objectives.
9. A current driver's licence and access to a comprehensively insured motor vehicle for work use.
10. Demonstrated experience, expertise and commitment to working in the child and family services sector.

DESIRABLE

Accreditation in evidence based parenting programs – Triple P, Circle of Security, 123 Magic etc..