CENTRAL COAST

FAMILY SUPPORT SERVICES

Central Coast Family Support Services is a community based service supporting families on the Central Coast of NSW.

WHAT

IS THE GRANDPARENTS RAISING GRANDCHILDREN PROGRAM?

Our Grandparents Raising Grandchildren program aims to strengthen family relationships and increase the safety and wellbeing of grandparents, children and young people.

WHO

IS IT FOR?

To be eligible for our service you need to be a Central Coast resident with the fulltime care and responsibility of your grandchildren aged up to 16 years. This is a free service.

HOW

DO WE SUPPORT FAMILIES?

- We provide a range of group work programs for grandparents across the Central Coast region, including peer support groups, workshops, parenting education programs, weekend family events and a bi-annual weekend camp for grandparent families.
- If required, workers can assist families with identifying individual goals to reach their ideal family situation.
- Grandparents are assisted to build the skills and confidence they need to be self-sufficient and manage family issues as they arise.
- Our case workers are mobile and flexible, able to meet with our families at a location that is convenient for you, whether it be at your home, at our offices or somewhere in the community.
